Position Information

Position Objective:

The Paediatric Speech Pathologist – Early Career position is a junior role within the Child Health and Development service. This newly formed role will deliver the provision of speech pathology within a broader multi-discipline team with the support of more senior colleagues.

Clinical services are provided using an early childhood early intervention approach to working with children presenting with mild to moderate delays in their development, and with diagnosed disabilities. The needs of children and young people are seen in the context of their age, developmental stage, gender and culture, and services build on the strengths of carers for the benefit of the whole family and community.

The early career position will predominately consist of a caseload of Community Health clients. In the role you will provide speech pathology assessments, interventions, programs and supports for children (and their families). There will be the opportunity to develop your skills to support a broader range of presentations including those funded under NDIS as suitable.

Child Health service provision is child centred, family focused and provides a flexible, culturally sensitive, respectful, and supportive approach that builds on the strengths of

	the client and families and empowers clients/participants to participate meaningfully in their home and community life. In this role you will work with the highest degree of professional integrity, collaboration, and flexibility within a multidisciplinary team reflective of United Nations Convention on the rights of the Child and NDIS Practice Standards.
